

Organization: Service Employees International Union (SEIU)

Job Title: Bilingual (English/Spanish) Communications Coordinator for Comprehensive Immigration Law Reform Campaign

Location: Washington, D.C.

To Apply: Please email your cover letter and resume to: resumes@seiu.catsone.com

SEIU, the nation's largest union of immigrant workers, seeks to hire a senior communications professional to manage and direct the union's campaign communications to achieve comprehensive immigration reform. This person will lead efforts to fight back against anti-immigrant legislation across the country and support our growing immigration and immigrant civic engagement campaigns.

Ideal candidates must demonstrate an ability to direct strategic campaign communications including excellence in writing for various audiences, developing message and enforcing message discipline, and a successful track record in media relations.

Candidates must be bi-lingual in English and Spanish, have experience working with diverse groups, experience supervising junior staff, and have a minimum of five years advocacy campaign communications experience. Must thrive in an environment with competing priorities, tight deadlines, high-pressure and irregular hours.

SEIU is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
