

Chicago PR/Marketing Communications Professional Seeks Opportunity

Senior real estate communications professional/strategic thinker with proven experience in marketing, public relations and related disciplines seeks full-time or project assignments in Chicago. Helped build brand for leading Chicago-headquartered and international commercial real estate associations. Management experience with associations, agencies and corporations. Strategic planning, project management and team-building skills. Generated revenue and delivered projects within budget. Outstanding written and oral communications, fluent in social media applications. Developed and nurtured strategic alliances to reach goals and provide solutions. One of 5,000 PR professionals to hold Accreditation in Public Relations (APR) credential. Active blogger. Principal at communications consultancy serving restaurant/hospitality, real estate, mortgage and other businesses. Please reply to Edward M. Bury at: edwardmbury@yahoo.com or 773-463-9811.