

Syracuse University Chair – Public Relations

Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications seeks candidates for the position of Chair of its highly-regarded Public Relations Department. The ideal candidate is a visionary leader with both the professional experience and academic credentials to develop strategies to keep the program strong and innovative. The successful applicant will have a record of teaching, scholarly or creative productivity and service commensurate with appointment as a tenured associate or full professor. Beginning July 1, 2014, the new Chair will teach and advise students and carry out administrative responsibilities that include: collaboration with administrators to further the School's professionally-oriented mission; delivery and ongoing reviews of the undergraduate and graduate curricula; recruitment, orientation and mentoring of junior and part-time faculty; recruitment and admission of graduate students; building and maintaining relationships with current and prospective students and their parents, and with alumni, donors and industry leaders. Advanced degree preferred. Salary and benefits competitive and commensurate with qualifications/experience.

For full description and online application instructions: Go to www.sujobopps.com

Under "Search Open Positions", enter Job #070854. Cover letter, C.V. or resume and contact information for 4 references must be submitted electronically. Review of applications begins January 6, 2014 and continues until the position is filled. Applications from women and minority candidates are especially encouraged.

Syracuse University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

Apply Here: <http://www.Click2Apply.net/kvj7ws5>